SECTION 3: WHY FIELDTURF LANDSCAPE

Header

Lead With Performance. Win With Confidence.

Subheader

Customers want to feel confident in the surface they choose. With performance heritage, product testing, application knowledge, manufacturing experience, and sales support, FieldTurf Landscape helps you explain value and close more work with confidence.

Proof Points

1. Built on Sports. Proven Beyond the Field.

FieldTurf's roots are in high-performance sports surfaces trusted across professional, collegiate, and community programs. That same performance mindset carries into every landscape turf system, giving contractors a credibility point that no-name suppliers simply cannot match.

2. Real Answers When Customers Ask Why It Costs More

Drainage performance, durability ratings, safety testing, and application-specific product selection give you actual talking points. You are not just saying it is better turf. You can explain why.

3. One Supplier. Every Application Your Customers Ask About.

Yards, pet areas, playgrounds, putting greens, rooftops, commercial spaces, and specialty projects. FieldTurf Landscape helps you match the right turf system to the job instead of putting one product into everything you install.

4. U.S.-Made. Vertically Integrated. Consistently What You Ordered.

U.S.-based manufacturing and vertically integrated production support product consistency, quality control, and ongoing innovation. You install it and your name is on it. Knowing what is in the product matters.

5. Support That Helps You Win the Conversation

Product guidance before you quote. Sales tools to use with customers. Resources to help you answer questions and present a stronger turf offering. FieldTurf Landscape supports you before and after the sale.

CTA

SECTION 5: SUPPORT + HOW TO GET STARTED

Header

Support That Helps You Quote, Sell, Deliver, and Get Started

Subheader

FieldTurf Landscape helps contractors choose the right products, explain premium value, and back better projects from the first customer conversation through installation.

Product Guidance

- Application-based product recommendations
- Guidance before you quote
- Help answering customer product questions

Sales Support

- Talking points on drainage, durability, safety, and product fit
- Customer-facing materials to support the sale
- Help positioning premium turf over cheaper alternatives

Business Support

- Training resources for your team
- Co-branded materials where available
- Ongoing support as you expand services

How It Works

Step 1: Tell Us What You Need

Share details about your project, service area, or goals. One job or long-term growth, both are a fine place to start.

Step 2: Talk With Our Team

We learn what you are working on and help identify the best product options for the application and your customer's expectations.

Step 3: Choose the Right Product

Get clear guidance on products that fit the job, the install conditions, and what the customer needs long-term.

Step 4: Buy With Support

Move forward with product support before, during, and after the sale. Whether this is your first job or your fiftieth.

SECTION 8: FAQ

Section Header

Good Questions. Straight Answers.

Can I buy turf directly from FieldTurf Landscape?

Yes. If you build, quote, or install outdoor spaces, this page is for you. Contractors, turf installers, outdoor building pros, hardscape contractors, outdoor living pros, lawn care companies adding turf services, and anyone else who builds outdoor spaces professionally is welcome to reach out about buying turf products.

Do I need to become a dealer first?

No. You can start by talking with our team about products for a current job or future projects. No contract is required to start the conversation or buy turf.

Can I buy turf for one project?

Yes. If you have a current project, tell us what you are working on and our team will help you understand your product options and next steps.

Do you work with contractors who are new to turf?

Yes. We support experienced turf installers as well as contractors adding turf to their services for the first time. We can help you choose the right product regardless of where you are in your turf business.

Can you help me choose the right turf?

Yes. Our team can match products to the application, including yards, pet areas, playgrounds, putting greens, commercial spaces, rooftops, patios, and specialty projects.

Do you provide training or product guidance?

Yes. Contractors can access product guidance, application support, sales tools, and training resources to help quote and sell with more confidence.

Can I grow into a larger FieldTurf relationship later?

Yes. Some contractors start with individual projects and grow into a larger FieldTurf Landscape relationship over time, including access to additional support, marketing resources, and lead opportunities where available.

Are territory opportunities available?

Territory opportunities may be available for contractors who grow into a larger relationship with FieldTurf Landscape. They are not required to start buying turf or to have any conversation with us.

What happens after I contact FieldTurf?

Our team will follow up about your project, product needs, timing, and service area. From there, we help you find the right product and next step. No pressure, no contract required.
